United Nations Security Council and European Union blacklists

Recommendation 1824 (2008)¹

1. The Parliamentary Assembly, referring to its Resolution 1597 (2008) on United Nations Security Council and European Union blacklists, invites the Committee of Ministers to take up the issue of targeted sanctions and to invite:

1.1. the United Nations Security Council and the Council of the European Union to examine their targeted sanctions regimes and to implement procedural and substantive improvements aimed at safeguarding individual human rights and the rule of law, as a matter of the credibility of the international fight against terrorism, in particular an effective and comprehensive appeal mechanism against sanctions imposed by United Nations and European Union bodies;

1.2. those member states of the Council of Europe which are permanent or non-permanent members of the United Nations Security Council, or of the European Union, to use their influence as a matter of urgency in these international bodies in order to improve the respective targeted sanctions regime so as to ensure respect for human rights and the rule of law;

1.3. those member states of the Council of Europe which are permanent or non-permanent members of the United Nations Security Council or of the European Union to respect judicial decisions in relation to registration on blacklists, and to present the measures they have taken to put an end to the ongoing irregularities mentioned in the Assembly report.
